

Oregon North Coast Salmon Anchor Habitats

Wild Salmon Center is working with partners and citizens to protect key "salmon anchor habitat" in the Tillamook and Clatsop State Forests. If successful, the Oregon North Coast Initiative would secure long-term protection of over 150,000 acres of temperate rainforest and critical stretches of healthy wild salmon rivers.

Ownership

- State Forest
- Bureau of Land Management
- US Forest Service National Forest
- Salmon Anchor Habitats